Marin Municipal Water District - Natural Resource Program Internships

Unpaid internship positions available are involved with vegetation ecology, biological monitoring, GIS and GPS. Students must commit to 35 hours during a semester and have substantial knowledge in one of these disciplines or the aptitude to learn.

Closing date for spring semester applications: January 15, 2012

For more information you can visit MMWD: Natural Resource Program Internships .